

Proposal to move the English Language Institute (ELI) to the College of Arts and Sciences

Whereas,

The English Language Institute's mission of teaching, research, and service in second language acquisition, cross-cultural communication, and academic preparation aligns with that of many departments within the College of Arts and Science, and the English Language Institute is an academic unit requiring a college home, and

Whereas,

Whereas,

the faculty of the English Language Institute endorse the transfer of the unit to the College of Arts and Science, and

Whereas,

the proposal for the transfer of the English Language Institute from the College of Education and Public Policy to the College of Arts and Science is acceptable to the Deans of each College, be it therefore that the Faculty Senate affirms the proposed transfer of the English Language Institute from the College of Education and Public Policy to the College of Arts and Science.

Resolved,