

Provisional Recommendation of New Program -- Resolution

The Master of Arts in Social Studies in World History

WHEREAS,

The Master of Arts in Social Studies in World History will provide an intensive, integrated and interdisciplinary study of world history for teachers that will stress application to current issues and challenges in the global community.

WHEREAS,

By stressing interdisciplinary themes and concepts in world history and global studies, this program will contribute to a synergy of ideas and concepts across the university.

WHEREAS,

Our innovative use of distance learning technology will allow for the internationalization of the graduate cohorts.

WHEREAS,

The Master of Arts in Social Studies in World History will engage local, national and global communities through education.

WHEREAS,

The consensus of educators and administrators consulted is that this program would be an innovative and outstanding contribution to improving the teaching of World History and related Global Studies courses.

RESOLVED, that the Faculty Senate recommends provisionally, for five years, the establishment of a new graduate program, entitled Master of Arts in Social Studies in World History effective June 1, 2013.