

School of Urban Affairs and Public Policy

Resolution

Whereas,

The University of Delaware has undertaken a reorganization of certain programs and activities, and the faculty in the School of Urban Affairs and Public Policy has voted to approve a plan to move in toto, the faculty, personnel, academic and other programs and activities in the School of Urban Affairs and Public Policy and its affiliated Centers including the Center for Community Research and Service, the Center for Applied Demography and Survey Research, the Institute for Public Administration, and the Center for Historic Architecture and Design to the College of Arts and Sciences; and

Whereas,

The School of Urban Affairs and Public Policy wishes to strengthen its existing academic programs and raise their prominence externally and at the University; to better connect faculty to students; and to improve the management of subvention resources under the University's responsibility based budgeting system; and

Whereas,

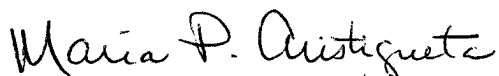

The faculty and staff in the School of Urban Affairs and Public Policy has voted to recommend the transfer and to change the School's name to the School of Public Policy and Administration; and

Whereas,

The terms and conditions stated in a memorandum of understanding executed by the Provost are incorporated by reference into this resolution;

Now therefore, be it resolved,

That the transfer of faculty, personnel and programs from the School of Urban Affairs and Public Policy to the existing College of Arts and Sciences with the name changed to the School of Public Policy and Administration be effective as of January 1, 2011.

Maria Aristigueta, Director

on behalf of the faculty and staff of the School of Urban Affairs and Public Policy

 16 Sept 2010

George Watson, Dean, College of Arts and Sciences